It is hard to believe that we are about to wrap up 3rd quarter. Time passes by so quickly! It has been amazing to witness the growth of your children both academically and spiritually. Please enjoy the photos attached to the second page of this newsletter. We had a wonderful week learning many new things, and building Leprechaun traps with our first grade buddies.

Religion: This week, students reviewed the themes of the 4-6th Commandments and reflected on working according to God's Will. We also spent time reflecting on our Lenten journey on the day of Recollection.

Reading/Language Arts:

In Reading, we read and discussed chapter 7 in The Indian in the Cupboard. Omri tells his best friend about the Indian. Students had an opportunity to present their tepee projects earlier in the week. In Language Arts, students identified adjectives that tell how many and adjectives as subject complements.

Chapter 13 Vocabulary:

abstract, attentive, courtesy, noticeable, ally, bonus, manufacture, overthrow, appoint, carefree, mistrust, peculiar Math: This week students worked on dividing money. They also solved story problems in which they were asked to interpret the remainders. We will be wrapping up chapter 5 next Wednesday.

Social Studies: In Social Studies, we wrapped up chapter 6. We will begin learning about the Midwest region next week.

Science: In Science, we watched our seedlings grow. We also learned about environmental factors that impact plant and animal adaptations.
