

The Nies News

April 27, 2018

Important Dates:

April 30: Portillo's Night

May 4: No School

May 17: Banana Split Night

June 5: Last day of school

11:30 dismissal

Our class has been busy learning many new things. Your child had an opportunity to present a group project to the class about endangered species this past week. It was so much fun to watch the students take on the role of "teacher". Please enjoy the photos from a few of our week's big events.

Have a blessed weekend!

Mrs. Nies

Religion:

We wrapped up Chapter 14.

Chapter 15 focuses on how

God is always our Forgiving

Father as long as we are willing to return our hearts to Him.

Reading/Language Arts:

In Reading, we began reading My Life as A Book. This is about a mischievous boy who does not like reading, but loves adventure. He finds adventure in a place he least expected.

In Language Arts, In Language Arts, students identified and used helping verbs in sentences they also identified verb phrases.

Math: This week, we worked on telling time, and calculating elapsed time using models, and number lines.

Social Studies: In Social Studies, we learned about the challenges faced by the Lakota tribe and many of the Native American tribes across the U.S. during westward expansion. Chapter 9 will focus on the features of the Southwestern United States.

Science: In science, students had the opportunity to present their Google Slides presentation about their Endangered Species. I was blown away by the presentations! Everyone did a wonderful job.

Unit 16 Vocabulary Words:

Adorn, appropriate, assemble, colossal, effective, frail, hostage, landslide, rampage, scamper, symptom, warrant

*Due to many absences, the Unit 15 test will be sent home next weekend.**
