

Dear Parents,

As our year draws to a close, I wanted to thank you for granting me the opportunity to teach your child this year. I have witnessed immense growth academically and spiritually. I look forward to watching them grow as they move on to the next level.

In the coming weeks, I will be posting photos from the school year on our class website and through Google Classroom. Have a safe and relaxing summer break.

Mrs. Nies

